

Are you a practicing professional, academic, or graduate student who wants to improve your knowledge and skills about caring for families experiencing serious illness?

Family Externship May 3-7, 2010 - with Dr. Janice M. Bell and Dr. Lorraine M. Wright
Practice Models for Caring for Families with Competence, Confidence, and Compassion
Calgary, Alberta, Canada

REGISTER NOW TO RESERVE YOUR PLACE. A LIMITED NUMBER OF SEATS ARE AVAILABLE!

5 day workshop provides clinical practice knowledge for nurses and other health care practitioners working with families experiencing illness. Participants will gain practical guidelines and skills to address illness suffering and family healing. Widely recognized family practice models: Calgary Family Assessment Model, Calgary Family Intervention Model, Illness Beliefs Model, and Trinity Model will be used to guide the learning.

Who Should Attend?

Nurses, Social Workers, Psychologists, Physicians, Family Therapists, Rehabilitation specialists, etc. who encounter families experiencing life shortening illness, chronic illness, and mental illness.
- Also Welcome: Family members experiencing serious illness.

Tuition:

- $1250 Canadian (paid by cheque or international money order)
- Deadline April 9th, 2010

Location:

Hotel Alma, University of Calgary, Calgary Alberta: www.hotelalma.ca

Reserve special hotel rate available for Family Externship

Email stay@hotelalma.ca or call 1-877-498-3203

(Standard Room Rate: $141.90 including GST and tax)

Room includes breakfast, free internet, free local and long distance calls within North America. Each room has one queen size bed, fridge/microwave, coffee maker, and a 32" Flat Screen TV.

UNIVERSITY OF CALGARY

To obtain your workshop registration form please contact Dr. Bell at jmbell@ucalgary.ca

For more information please visit their websites at www.janicembell.com & www.lorrainewright.com

